

Notice to Candidates

1. Subsequent to the examination, only candidates to whom Awards will be made will receive further notification.
2. You must attend punctually at the times assigned to the subjects which you are offering. If you arrive more than half-an-hour late you will be admitted to the examinations, but your work will be accepted only if you can satisfy the University as to the reasons for your lateness.
3. You must bring this examination card and any form of ID to each examination and these shall be displayed in a prominent position on your desk.
4. Each candidate will complete a form bearing his/her number and name which will be collected by the Invigilator not later than half-an-hour after the start of each examination.
5. You may not leave the room during the first half-hour of the examination. Thereafter you may leave the room temporarily only with the permission of the Invigilator.
6. You may not bring books or papers of any kind into the examination room except as specifically permitted by the regulations. You may not place on your desk any pencil cases, calculator cases, wallets or purses.
7. You must write your identification number very distinctly at the top of the cover of every answer book or separate sheet of paper which is handed in - you may lose credit for any book not distinctly bearing your number.
8. The use of scrap paper is not permitted. All rough work must be done in the answer books and crossed neatly through.
9. Except for the printed question paper, you may not remove from the examination room, or mutilate, any paper or other material supplied.
10. You are required to provide your own pen, pencil, ruler, eraser and, if necessary, calculator. You must use a pencil to shade your answers on the multiple choice answer sheets.

Handwritten signature/initials
2006

X